hough there may not be a demonstration, I hall try my best to offer my explanations, however erroneous and incomplete according to the ight of my own understanding, as far as I have >een able to think over the subject. But not low; I defer all further explanations regarding he question till we come to the next incident hat I experienced, with regard to a friend of nine, also a patient in the Asylum. The varder that brought about this cataclysm seemed to suggest that the hidden meaning underlying the Mahomedan ritual Qurvani, embodied this very idea, much the same way, is the story of Ganesha did in our Hindoo Vtythology. There is a saying in English, that :o me appears very suggestive; it is, that at lie time of the French Revolution "All the cdngs of Europe, found their heads lopped off. Of course this is only a saying and may not be true in the sense 1 venture to interpret it. However to return to our story.

When they removed me to a different room for the night, I seemed to feel like a camel with my neck stretched so. I did not, however, mention to the superintendent, when he came to see me next day, anything regarding